For the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998, the data controller is the minister of the parish, who will use the information on this form to ensure that the legal requirements relating to the marriage are complied with and to make arrangements for the wedding ceremony. The minister will only share the information with those who need to see it for those purposes.

NOTES

(Numbers refer to sections overleaf)

At least seven days' notice is required before the first reading of banns.

(3) If either of you will not be 18 by the proposed date of the wedding, the priest will need to know whether the consent of parents or guardians has been obtained.

(6) Make sure you include the name of the town, county, and postcode.

(12) This means the Church of England parish in which you live. If either of you lives in a different parish from that in which the marriage is to take place, you have to arrange for the banns to be read there too and obtain a banns certificate.
